

Run once
Tues 4
Wed. night

With bells a-jingle, The Hampshire Bookshop wishes you a very Merry Christmas... and we suggest you relax on your way home for the holidays by letting us fill and mail your Christmas orders.

Fiction-wise our suggestions for under the tree range from Anya Seton's historical novel KATHERINE to the tip-top of the best seller list: Hamilton Basso's THE VIEW FROM POMPEY'S HEAD. You New Yorker fans will welcome the new collection of Frank O'Connor short stories, called, naturally, MORE STORIES BY FRANK O'CONNOR.....and THE LOVE LETTERS OF PHYLLIS MCGINLEY is poetry at its loveliest... ideal for those with sense and sensibility. For your shoe man who likes to wing it on weekends, try one of our Cape Cod ties. ~~They vary from mild checks to null, tweed-type...and should guarantee mistletoe reaction.~~

Lindt and Droste chocolate is just the thing to melt in your hot little palm on the way home.....the smart thing to do is eat it as you travel. ~~Makes long trains short, and creates topical talk when you share those delicious flavors.~~

All these goodies are available on our 1st floor for prices that fit your Christmas budget.....presents for the whole family, and for those friends you want to remember with something special.

From all of us at the Hampshire Bookshop.....a very merry Yuletide....we'll see you in the new year!

Announcer: A little long - we sure to read it over first -
